

MARS 2018

Medieval and Renaissance Symposium

(University of Łódź, Faculty of Philology, Pomorska 171/173, opening lecture - room A5
conference sessions - room 2.20)

15.05.2018

11:45 – 12:45

Lizanne Henderson (University of Glasgow): Witchcraft and Shamanism in Northern Communities: A View From Scotland

12:45 – 13:30

Lunch

13:30 – 15:00

Paweł Rutkowski (University of Warsaw): Relics in Post-Reformation England

Joanna Matyjaszczyk (University of Łódź): Pre- and Post-Reformation Representations of the Devil in Popular Balladry

Piotr Spyra (University of Łódź): Fairies and the Scopic Regimes of Early Modernity

15:15 – 16:45

Bartłomiej Błaszkiwicz (University of Warsaw): The Concept of the Miracle in the Renaissance

Jacek Fabiszak (Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań): Marlovian Self-Conscious Characters: Revision of Renaissance Self-Fashioning?

Magdalena Cieślak (University of Łódź): "Did Women Have a Renaissance?" Women's Position in Early Modern England, and Its Representation in Shakespeare's Plays

16:45 – 17:15

Coffee break

17:15 – 18:15

Maria Błaszkiwicz (University of Warsaw): Tolkien and Ariosto

Andrzej Wicher (University of Łódź): Othello as his Wife's Enchanted Enchanter. A Study of the Tradition of Tales about Supernatural Husbands and Wives as it Appears in Shakespeare's Othello

From 18:30

Dinner (Heksagon, Pomorska 144)